

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Louisville, Ky.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a world of good and I cannot praise it enough. I suffered from irregularities, dizziness, nervousness, and a severe female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored me to perfect health and kept me from the operating table. I will never be without this medicine in the house."—Mrs. SAM'L LEE, 3224 Fourth St., Louisville, Ky.

Another Operation Avoided. Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from female troubles, and my doctor said an operation was my only chance, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me without an operation."—LENA V. HENRY, R. P. D. 3.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many suffer.

Protest From Westerly Ministers

Ask Selectmen of Connecticut Town to End Boxing Bouts in Pawcatuck—Chauffeur Milford Must Pay Penalty for Careless Driving—Books for Library from Philipines—Meeting of County Medical Society.

Although active in legal battle for more than eight months, John V. Welford, chauffeur for McCrea, the Pittsburg millionaire and Watch Hill summer resident, must surrender and submit to the penalty imposed upon him. Welford took exceptions in the case brought against him for recklessly running an automobile on the Watch Hill road on the night of August 1 last. The exceptions have been overruled in an opinion of the Rhode Island superior court, handed down by Chief Justice Dubois, Wednesday, and the case was remanded to the superior court for sentence. That court had imposed a penalty of $500 and costs, and appeal was taken to the supreme court on bill of exceptions. The complaint against Welford charged that he carelessly ran his automobile into an express wagon in which was Frank Collins, and that the man's life was endangered. He fled a charge of unlawful recklessness, and he was found guilty in the third district court, Westerly. On appeal to the superior court, the defendant's demurrer to the first count of the complaint was overruled and sustained as to the second count. In its opinion the supreme court refers to sections 11 and 12 of public laws, chapter 1283, and says:

"It is the duty of operators of motor vehicles to obey the laws regulating the use of such vehicles. Disregard of or inattention to such duty constitutes unlawful recklessness. The words 'unlawfully' and 'recklessly' in the complaint are descriptive of the manner in which the defendant drove the motor vehicle into and against the team driven by the complainant in the highway so as to endanger his life and limbs. They negative any inference that the collision was an innocent accident. The facts stated in the count do constitute the offense of operating a motor vehicle on a public highway of the state so as to endanger the life and limbs of complainant. The demurrer was properly overruled and the exception without merit.

There is no doubt but the best moral sense of Westerly is against the boxing and the fact that it has been permitted just over the river in the village of Pawcatuck in the town of Stonington, although these sportsmen have been conducted as orderly as possible and attended by many reputable citizens. So far as known, no objections to them have been filed by the citizens of Pawcatuck, but the ministers of Westerly have taken the matter up with the selectmen of Stonington by the presentation of a formal protest against these sporting events, on the ground that they tend to depravity of morals and therefore are not conducive to the general good of the community of which Westerly is a part, although located in another state. It is a peculiar fact that there is not a resident minister in Pawcatuck and that the signers of the protest are Westerly, Rhode Island, citizens, and just what effect the efforts of Westerly people to regulate the affairs of another town and in another state will have with the selectmen of Stonington is problematical.

While Westerly and Pawcatuck are practically considered as one community, receiving the same post office service, still they are under different state and town governments, and there are people on both sides of the Pawcatuck river who take advantage of the situation, both from a social and business standpoint, and not infrequently for criminal convenience. Both places do not always work in harmony and town lines are occasionally drawn very tight. There was not so very long ago a vicious kick made almost bordering on a public investigation, to ascertain who gave the Groton-Stonington trolley road authority to attach a trolley car wire to a post that stood a few feet within Rhode Island territory.

Later a proposition from the selectmen of the town of Stonington to pave the union bridge in Broad street with vitrified brick was turned down by the Westerly town council, which voted to do nothing in that respect until it was definitely decided whether the trolley road was to be permitted to enter Rhode Island, and that even then granite blocks would be used on the Westerly section instead of vitrified brick. And this after a joint committee from both towns had agreed upon vitrified brick.

Major Edwin P. Pendleton of Westerly Twenty-ninth infantry, now on duty in the Philippines has sent to the Westerly public library a copy of the special historical and industrial edition of the Mendocino Herald. Also, a large illustrated book descriptive of the Annual Military Tournament and Athletic Meet of the Department of New London. Another of the Roster and Directory of the United States Troops in the Philippines, and Roster of the Commissioned Officers of the Twenty-ninth Infantry.

Local Laconics.
"Johnny at the Fountain" is the latest musical production by a Westerly song writer.

Keeper J. R. Young of the Watch Hill lighthouse, is on a vacation, his first in eight years.

The penalty for spitting on the sidewalk in Westerly is $20, or four times greater than the penalty in the nearest city.

Mrs. Charles Paladino died Wednesday night, after a brief illness at her home in Tower street. Mrs. Paladino was daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Toscano.

Many friends, including his fellow directors of the Washington Trust company, called on Edwin Babcock at his home in Elm street, Thursday, to extend congratulations on his nineteenth birthday.

The Providence Board of Trade Journal, just issued, says: "Westerly, that progressive town in the southern part of the state, has caught the microbe of activity in the promotion of trade and business. Its board of trade is a vigorous body for a place the size of Westerly."

The quarterly meeting of the Washington County Medical society was held at the Dixon hotel, Thursday. Dr. John C. Taylor of New London read an instructive paper on Otitis Media Acuta. There was a large attendance and the session was well received their hearty vote of thanks.

ALLEGED HARMONY
IS SAID NOT TO EXIST
In Connection With Hearings on Public Utilities Commission.

Hartford, April 8.—It is a noteworthy fact in connection with hearings on the public utilities commission measure which was introduced at the instance of the present commission that not a member of the commission has appeared in favor of the bill. The secretary of the commission, Mr. Wells, has conducted the case for the measure, and it was assumed that the men who drafted the bill favored it, but making the fight for it has been left to the public service commission.

Meantime it has developed that among the four members of the commission who drafted it, Mr. Wilcox's illness, recent death having practically taken him out of any active participation in the matter, there is not the harmony that has been supposed to exist. One member of the commission has made no secret of the fact that he has done his duty and washed his hands of the matter. He has even said to members of the legislature that he should leave his connection with the bill where it stood, and certainly shouldn't ask any member to vote for it.

There is little more evidence regarding the matter to be heard by the judicial committee, and the arguments will be made by the middle of next week, but it is not thought that a report will be forthcoming for some little time yet, as the committee desires to go over the subject thoroughly in executive session, and will delay somewhat to await the outcome of Governor Lillie's illness. There is little reason to expect, however, that it will report in favor of this bill, or indeed, any measure creating a public service commission.

WATER SHUT OFF.

A Number of Test Cases Are Being Brought.

Here in New Haven, says The Union, the water can be shut off from houses where the water bill remains unpaid. In Waterbury a fight is on against such action. Today in that city members of the Real Estate Dealers' association will appear before a judge of the superior court and ask an injunction restraining the city of Waterbury from cutting off the water from any consumers who are in arrears in their rents.

A prominent member of the association said today: "The order of Mayor Thomas is an attempt to place us in a false light. We are ready to compromise and he is not. Before many hours we hope to have an injunction in force. It is amazing to see an attempt at bravery. That old injunction has been of no value for two years."

"As the situation now stands Mayor Thomas has ordered Supt. of Water William E. Kennedy to shut off the water of all consumers who are in arrears on water rents on April 15. Mayor Thomas, with all his bravery, will not take the matter into the courts for he knows he would be highly pleased if he would do so. He has always claimed the old bills should be paid at once, and now he is upon his express recommendation that the unfair rates were changed to what they now are."

BRIDGEPORT PATROLMEN
Get $9,600 as Result of Recent Suit.

There was distributed to Bridgeport patrolmen over $9,600 Tuesday afternoon, which was back pay due them for a year, and is the result of their legal victory over the board of appointment, says the Bridgeport Telegram. The money was turned over to Clerk Smith's room with an outstretched hand and a smile, and took what was handed to them, minus the 10 per cent. deduction for attorney's fees.

By taking their case to court and refusing to resign, as did the officers, the patrolmen won a decided victory over the officers of the department. It will be recalled that the increased pay of the men went into effect in April, 1908. By the action of the board of appointment and the legal obstacle that the commissioners encountered, the entire force was denied the increase.

The officers of the department, including the superintendent, the captain, the lieutenants and sergeants, all tendered their resignations last December and were immediately reappointed to their old positions. This is how they evaded the charter clause and became entitled to the increased salary. The patrolmen had no character to evade, but took their case to the court and won out. By this action they get a full year's pay. The officers, who had their pay increased at the same time as did the patrolmen, have only enjoyed their increase for the past four months.

DISPLAY SIGNS.
Waterbury Business Men Instrumental in Having Prices Reduced.

Through the efforts of the Postoffice Square Business Men's association of Waterbury, the Connecticut company is about to make a big cut on electrical display signs. They have practically agreed to reduce the cost per light of these signs from eight to five cents. They will give for $1.50 per year a four candle power light to be burned five hours each night. One merchant at present pays $96 a year for his sign, which he burns only two nights a week. Under the new price he can have the sign going every night in the year for $108.

WANT NEW SCHOOL TAX LAW.
Attempts Being Made to Reach Class That Pays Nothing for Support of Schools at Shelton.

The fact that the people having the largest number of children who are being educated in the public schools of Shelton pay absolutely nothing for the support of these schools has caused the victory of the taxpayers to endeavor to attempt to secure the passage of some law that will reach these people.

As it is at present there are in Shelton over one thousand who pay absolutely nothing, directly at least, toward the support of the public schools.

A Town Boomer.
A good citizen of Hardwick, Mass., seems to have known how to leave his money for the benefit of that town.

The will of Calvin Paige, after leaving $40,000 each for four nieces, bequeathed $25,000 for the improvement of the public schools of Hardwick, $30,000 for improving the town of Hardwick, and $100,000 to the same town for the establishment of a fair ground to encourage improvement in farming, and $25,000 to the First Universalist society of the same place.
